

In the long run, media consolidation leads to a lack of competition in the marketplace and the erosion of local communities as the corporate voice becomes the dominant one. Isn't our country founded on the principle of one nation, many voices? Without access to media, our voices are effectively silent. I vehemently oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I beg of you to retain the current ownership rules.